By road

Woolacombe is 110 miles or 2hrs 30mins from Bristol, 225 miles or 4hrs 30mins from London and 180 miles or 3hrs 45mins from Birmingham.

From junction 27 on M5 take the third exit and follow signs for A361 to Barnstaple. Follow the signs for Ilfracombe. Take the dual carriageway to Braunton (note 50mph speed limit). Stay on A361 to Mullacott Cross roundabout, take the first exit and follow signs to Woolacombe. When you approach the 20mph speed limit into Woolacombe, take the first left and the hotel is directly in front of you.

There is a free car park for guests at the hotel.

By rail

It is advisable to take trains to Barnstaple via Exeter St Davids. Advanced bookings are considerably cheaper. Contact trainline.com on 0871 244 1545 for good deals.

Trains depart on Fridays from Birmingham New Street at 12 mins past the hour and arrive in Barnstaple 4hrs 25mins later. Trains depart from Bristol Temple Meads at 44 mins past the hour and arrives 2hrs 50mins later. Trains from London Paddington leave at 6 mins past the hour and take approximately 4 hrs. Trains depart Barnstaple for Exeter St Davids at 13:17, 15:14 and 17:20, taking 1hr and 15mins for changes to Bristol, Birmingham and London.

Buses

There is a limited bus service from Barnstaple to Woolacombe on Fridays. The 303 service departs from stand L at Barnstaple Bus Station at 10:50, 13:50, 16:40, 17:50. The journey takes 45 mins. There are no services running on Sundays.

By air

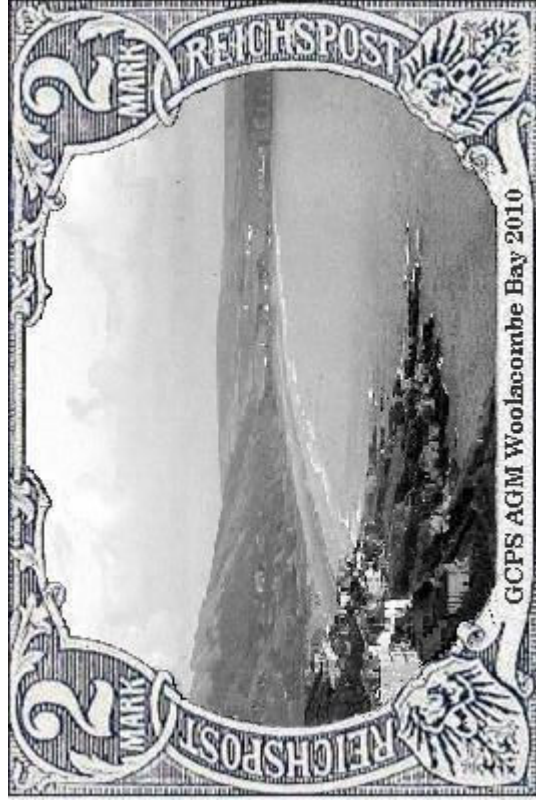

Woolacombe is 1hr and 30mins from Exeter Airport. Taxis costs approximately £60. Flights and fares vary considerably by airport and airline. Early bookings can be phenomenally cheap and fares from Newcastle and other northern airports can prove much cheaper than trains.

Taxis

Taxis are available from Barnstaple train station and by arrangement from Woolacombe Bay Hotel. The journey is 11 miles and takes about 30 mins at a cost of about £25. Booking in advance is always a good idea. Call 01271 470 021.
