

Directions for getting to the Bull Hotel car park. (with thanks to Andy Taylor)

Just past it (in line with the trees) is a row of bollards which prevent you from driving down Fitzwilliam Street from the other end; anyway the street is one way the other way so as well as hazardous and pointless it would be illegal.

To reach The Bull car park you need to get to Northminster from the City Road end, drive up it, and do a quick left-right-left. If you're feeling bold, get to the north end of Broadway, drive down it, and turn right at Fitzwilliam Street.

According to Google, using the hotel's old car park postcode of PE12RU brings you to the other end of Fitzwilliam Street, then says to drive the wrong way down it! Use PE11RX, which is the postcode for the Central Library, the large brick building behind the bus.

Driving from North or South via A1:

Leave A1 at junction 17, signposted Peterborough, A1139

Take right-hand lane and proceed forward on to Fletton Parkway, A1139, which becomes Frank Perkins Parkway

Leave at junction 5 signposted Boongate (possibly hidden by a bush), take first exit off roundabout and proceed along Boongate and uphill to the next roundabout.

Take second exit and proceed along New Road to T-junction

Car parking is free, but registration at reception is compulsory to avoid parking fines.
